PRINCIPAL’S REPORT

It was with great pleasure that we welcomed 3 teachers from Nanjing Huo Wa Xiang Primary School, China. Xiang Meiling and Wu Yifeng are both teachers of Chinese Language and Qin Wei is the Music teacher.

The teachers from the school were very impressed by the facilities of the school, the leadership roles the students have and the dedication of the staff at Patterson Lakes Primary School. Xu Qian, is a member of the Jiangsu Province Regional Office and was very interested in the very positive student wellbeing program that the school has.

Thank you all for making them feel welcome in our school community!

SCHOOL FETE - EXPRESSION OF INTEREST
Expressions of interest are sought for local small businesses who are interested in setting up a display or market stall at this year's school fete. There will be a payment required to participate but this will depend on the type of stall required.

This is a fantastic opportunity for our local small businesses to promote their services or products to the school community.

To those who are interested, could you please send an email to Kylie Brady at kylie@kb4travel.com.au. You will need to explain what you will be displaying/selling and if you have an association with the school or the Patterson Lakes community.

All applications will be assessed by the fete committee for suitability and will be limited in numbers due to the space available.
Issue 23: Supporting Children with Additional Needs

By working together, families and schools can make sure that children with additional needs are well supported which is important for their mental health and wellbeing.

Supporting children with additional needs enables them to participate and feel included at school and in their community, and helps promote their strengths. Providing all children with the support they require helps to meet their needs and enables them to grow and achieve with their classmates. For children with additional needs, developing individualised strategies to support their needs can be beneficial, based on the child’s individual requirements (eg routines and structure can often be helpful for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder). However, children do all vary and can respond differently to strategies. It is important to always consider the child’s individual needs. By working together, families and schools can make sure that children with additional needs are well supported which is important for their mental health and wellbeing.

Kids Matter Parent Survey

Thank you to the Wellbeing Leaders Kieran, Maddie and Annelise for greeting parents at the school gates in the afternoons the last two weeks, asking you for some time to complete the survey. All feedback given will be looked at in the Kids Matter Parent Team and suggestions/ actions will be discussed of how we can make Patto even better for everyone!

Thank you to the parents who have taken time to complete the survey.

InSPIRE

Last Friday, we braved the weather and played the game of “Roll the Dice”.

Congratulations to Georgia G of 1A who was the winner, just in time before the rain hit heavily. Congratulations to Mr Zarb who won the teacher game.

Patto Olympics

Tomorrow, we will be participating in the Patto Olympics. The Opening Ceremony will take place at 11am, and fun events will be held after lunch. All children are asked to come dressed in either the colours of their country, or a representation of their country.
Fun with the Staff

Annelise and Maddie had fun interviewing Mrs Shipham.

I love to read!

If you had a superpower, what would it be?

To read minds!
Thank you to everyone who supported our Crazy Hair Day last Friday. The children had such a wonderful day and there were some fantastic crazy hair styles. Our Junior School Councillors went around the classes and voted on the Best Hair Style in each class and they were awarded a certificate and we had representatives from Cystic Fibrosis come and take photographs with some of the kids as well. We proudly raised just over $750 and all proceeds will be donated to Cystic Fibrosis Victoria.

Give your parenting a spring clean

With spring in the air there is no better time for a little parenting spring clean to make sure you are on track to raise happy, confident and resilient kids.

Every parent I know wants be the best parent they can be. Yet despite the best intentions it’s easy develop poor parenting habits that don’t do our kids any favours.

With spring in the air there is no better time for a little parenting spring clean to make sure you are on track to raise happy, confident and resilient kids.

Here is a checklist of 10 parenting ideas designed to help you put some psychological muscle on your kids:

1. Encourage effort and improvement more than results: Descriptive praise is better than generalities. Better still, as kids get older focus your comments more on effort, improvement and contribution than on results. And don’t make your kids reliant on what you think about them as their source of self-esteem.

2. Get kids to help without being paid: A little payment for jobs is okay, but don’t go overboard. Teach kids what’s in it for ‘we’ not ‘me’. By the way, the use of rosters is a great way to get kids to help.

3. Balance free time with organised time: For learning reasons (kids learn a lot when play and activities are self-directed) and mental health reasons make sure kids have plenty of MOOC time.

4. NO deals with kids: If you bribe kids to behave well you teach them that they get what they negotiate. That’s hard work in family life. Better to give them a treat after they’ve behaved well as a show of appreciation rather than make their good behaviour contingent on a reward, also known as bribery.

5. Train your kids to speak for themselves: Give your kids the words they need to speak for themselves in all situations including when they are not with you.

6. When kids can, they do (make lunches, get themselves up, etc.): Sometimes we do things for kids that make us feel like a mum or a dad. Your job is to make yourself redundant as a parent so teach your kids to do/make/speak for themselves and work your way out of a job. NB: You will never become redundant as a mum or a dad.

7. Don’t give them things just because they ask: Character is built through impulse control. Resist giving them what they want even if you have the capacity to do so. Waiting, saving and goal-setting are admirable skills that are developed through scarcity.

8. Give kids a chance to sort out their fights and squabbles: The default mechanism for most sibling conflict is compromise. We’ve just got to give kids a chance to work things out themselves. There are legitimate times to get involved but we need to know what we are doing and why.

9. Use consequences to develop responsibility: Don’t rescue kids when they leave that school lunch at home, when they are late for school or they are less than pleasant to another child. Allow consequences to teach your kids the important lessons of life. You mess up sometimes but you can make up and/or move on – and you can learn from the experience.

10. Put the camera down – be in the moment: Make sure your mind is where your body is and be fully present when you are with your kids. Take more mental pictures than photos and build their family memories.

This checklist is designed to stimulate some thinking and conversation about your current child-rearing practice. It’s not intended as a template for good parenting. It may even stimulate you to do less of some things and more of others. Incremental change is how we become better at most endeavours, including raising children.
